

Donna M. Maye, MA

Professional Bio

Donna received a Master of Arts in Psychotherapy and Faith from Christian Theological Seminary – Indianapolis, IN. Donna is passionate about facilitating change and healing using holistic, strength-based, collaborative approaches to therapy. She seeks ways to highlight and honor the strengths clients bring to the therapeutic process to empower clients to change. Donna has a genuine appreciation for cultural diversity anchored in experience with underserved populations and victims of domestic violence. Donna believes that knowledge is power and increased knowledge can be utilized to heal and empower persons and systems.

Donna is a mental health professional working towards licensure as a mental health counselor (LMHC). Her volunteer and professional involvement and experience is extensive in the fields of child services, domestic violence, crisis intervention, substance abuse education and psycho-education.

Donna is on staff as a Crisis Call Manager (CCM) at The Julian Center where she conducts crisis intervention and intake assessments for women and children fleeing domestic violence.

Donna is a member of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI).
