

Kimi A. Walker, Ed.S.

Professional Bio

Kimi Walker received her Education Specialist degree in School Psychology from Florida A&M University. Her areas of interest are: psycho-educational testing, early childhood development, infant-toddler mental health, ADHD, behavior modification, sexual assault/abuse treatment, play therapy, learning disabilities, academic performance issues, and wellness coaching. Ms. Walker is currently a practicing school psychologist who primarily serves children and adolescents ages 2 through 12. She is a member of the National Association of School Psychologists and the Indiana Association of Infant-Toddler Mental Health.